NOTICE.

HAVING been informed from various sources, of the great suffering and needy condition of many of those deluded and thoughtless persons, who in violation of their plighted faith to their country, have deserted from the Pacific squadron, since the 9th day of October of this year, and who are now paying the penalty of their transgression, under the combined suffering of disease, famine and exposure to an inclement winter, and that many of said deserters, truly repenting their rash and ill-judged act of desertion, would return to their allegiance and their ships, but for the fear of the penalty which the laws might impose, I do hereby say to all such persons, who are chargeable with no other offence against the laws of the Navy than that of desertion—great as is the enormity—return immediately, to your duty, and you will have no cause to regret your confidence in my clemency and forbearance

NOTICE TO DISCHARGED VOLUNTEERS — THREE MONTHS EXTRA PAY

Extracts from Circular, from Paymaster General's Office.

No officer, non-commissioned officer, musician, or private, can receive his Three Months' Extra pay, for more than one term of service, but can make his election of the grade or tour of service on which he is to receive it.

No non-commissioned officer, musician, or private, promoted to the rank of a commissioned officer in the Regular Army, is entitled to his mileage or his Three Months' Extra Pay, promotion not being deemed a discharge as contemplated under the law This Three Months, Extra Pay is understood to be the pay proper only without rations, clothing, or any other allowance whatever

EVIDENCE REQUIRED

The testimony of the Commanding Officer of the Company, or in his absence, that of one of the Commissioned Officers thereof, will be required, to prove that the claimant is the individual who served in said Company and that he was honorably discharged from service, when such evidence cannot be procured, the testimony of two credible and disinterested persons, to the service and honorable discharge, may be received establish the claim

Powers of attorney must, in all cases, have been executed subsequently to the 19th of July, 1848, and should express that they are granted for the purpose of receiving the three months' extra pay, authorized by the act of Congress of that date Such powers will authorize any claimants to receive pay by their attorneys, but in all cases they must be accompanied with the evidence of service and honorable discharge

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Aug 3, 1848
Extract,

If an officer, non-commissioned officer, private, &c, after muster into service, has been discharged by reason of ill health, incurred while in the service of the United States he is entitled to the three months' extra pay But where he has been discharged on his own application on any grounds which did not render him incapable of serving out the term of his engagement, he is not entitled to the benefit of the law, although an honorable discharge may have been given to him Where a volunteer officer, wishing to retire from the service of the United States, has tendered the resignation of his commission, and it was not excepted in the form of a resignation, but he was discharged, he is not entitled to extra pay Officers appointed by the President leave the service by the tender and acceptance of their resignations Those receiving appointments from the Executive of the States, and received into the service of the United States, retire from it by discharge the former is not entitled to extra pay, nor can it be the intention of the law to allow it to the latter where they were discharged before their term of service had expired on their own application

I am of opinion that, in all cases where officers, non-commissioned officers, privates, &c were actually mustered into service, and while en route to the seat of war or the place assigned for actual service, have died or have been discharged in consequence of sickness incurred since being received into service, the right to extra pay attaches

WAR DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, October 9, 1848

SIR,—Although the Regiment of Volunteers in California, under the command of Colonel J D Stevenson, entered the service under an agreement to receive their discharge at the end of the war in that country if it should be then a part of the United States, and that they should not have a claim to be brought home at the expense of the Government, yet it is understood that many are anxious to return The President has deemed it proper to offer facilities for returning, to those who cannot be prevailed on to remain in California

You will on the receipt of this communication discharge such of the Volunteers in California, as are willing to be there discharged, and retain in service such as are unwilling to take their discharge until they can be conveniently sent to the United States. The authority to retain them is confirmed by a Joint Resolution of Congress passed the 16th day of June last, with a copy of which you are herewith furnished. The Quartermaster General will be directed to furnish such of the Volunteers as insist upon returning to their homes with the means of doing so If the Navy now in the Pacific shall have the means of bringing them home, directions will be given for that purpose

PENSION OFFICE,
March 4, 1847

In order to carry into effect the provisions of the 9th section of the act of the 11th of February, 1847, the Secretary of War has directed that the following regulations shall be observed

It will be observed, on reading the 9th section of the law, which accompanies these regulations, that there are six classes of persons provided for, viz

1 Those non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates of the regular srmy who have served, or may serve, in Mexico, during the present war with that country, and who have served out the full period of their enlistment, and have been honorably discharged, or who may have been, or may be, honorably discharged before the expiration of the period of their enlistment, in consequence of wounds received, or sickness incurred, in the course of such service

2 The representatives of such persons as are mentionned in the preceding paragraph, who may die in the serviee, or, after being discharged, and before the issuing of a certificate or warrant

3 Non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates who have been mustered, or may be mustered, for twelve months, in any volunteer company, who have served, or may serve, until the end of the war with Mexico, and have been or may be, honorably discharged by reason of the expiration of their enlistment, or in consequence of disability from wounds received, or sickness incurred in said service

4 The representatives, as designated by the act, of such volunteers as shall have died, or may die, in the service, or after having been honorably discharged, and before the issuing of a warrant or certificate

5 Volunteers received into the service since the commencement of the Mexican war, for less than twelve months, who shall have marched to the seat of war, and shall have served until honorably discharged.

6 The representatives, as designated in the act, of volunteers received into the service for less than three months, and who may have died in the service, or after having been honorably discharged, and before the passage of this act

In order to substantiate a claim for land or scrip, under the provisions of the foregoing section of the act, the persons described in the first class of these regulations will send to, or deposit with, the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington City, evidence of enlistment, service and honorable discharge, as required by law The best evidence on these points is held to be the original discharge of the applicant, which must, in all cases be produced if in existence, accompanied by the applicant's affidavit, setting forth that he is the identical person mentioned in the discharge; and in case of the loss, or destruction, of the discharge, the applicant will make oath to the fact, and produce the affidavit of some credible witness in corroboration of his statement The claimant must set forth the regiment and company to which he belonged; the time of entering the service, the time, place and manner of his leaving the same, and he must show by the testimony of a commissioned officer that he was honorably discharged.

In case the claimant should desire scrip, instead of land, he must make his request in writing, according to the form marked A, accompanying these regulations.

The rules in the paragraphs immediately preceding are applicable to volunteers mentioned in classes No. 3 and 5.

The representatives of deceased soldiers and others, as mentioned in classes 2, 4 and 6, must produce evidence of the enlistment, service and death of the original claimant. If the soldier was discharged, the discharge must be produced, if in existence. If not, the same proof will be required as in other cases of lost discharges, and if he died in the service, the certificate of his captain, or other officer who commanded the company to which he belonged, must be produced

The persons who may claim must produce evidence of their relationship to the deceased, and show the degree of consanguinity they bore to him This proof must be drawn in conformity with the form marked B, and may be taken before any court having probate jurisdiction. In case the father claims, he must show that no wife or child of the deceased is living, and in case the mother claims, she must show that neither the wife, child or father of the deceased is living.

☞ The discharge of the soldier, if he has one, must in every case accompany the above affidavit.

NOTES

1 It is proper to state, for the information of claimants under the 9th section of the act of February 11, 1847, that, in every instance in which a volunteer soldier was discharged on a surgeon's certificate, that paper must be sent to the Pension office with the claimant's affidavit, unless it has been otherwise disposed of If lost he should state the fact under oath

2 The official character and signature of the magistrate who may administer an oath, must be certified by the proper officer, under his seal of office. The certificate must accompany every case, and be attached to the paper on which the affidavit is written No affidavit taken before a notary public can be admitted as evidence, except in the States of New Hampshire, Connecticut, Virginia, South Carolina, Wisconsin and Indiana,' in which States laws have passed giving such officers power to administer oaths for general purposes.

The post to which the soldier marched should be mentioned.

Cheer Up.

BY M. F. TUPPER.

Never so gloomily, man with a mind,
Hope is a better companion than fear,
Providence, ever benignant and kind,
Gives with a smile what you take with a tear;
All will be right
Look to the light;
Morning is ever the daughter of night·
All that was black will be all that is bright;
Cheerily, cheerily, then cheer up.

Many a foe is a friend in disguise;
Many a sorrow a blessing most true,
Helping the heart to be happy and wise,
With love ever precious and joys ever new;
Stand in the van;
Strive like a man
This is the bravest and cleverest plan
Trusting in God; while you do what you can,
Cheerily, cheerily, then cheer up!

She Never Smiles.

She never smiles—no happy thought
Lights up her pensive eye
The merry laugh, from lip to lip,
Passes unheeded by
Frozen forever in her heart,
The sparkling fount of gladness,
And o'er it pours, in rapid flood,
The chon waves of sadness
She never smiles—has frowning grief
With her stern magic bound her?
Has care her long, lean finger raised,
To cast her fetters round her?
Has one so young the lesson learned
That love is oft betrayed?
Ah no! she never smiles, because—
Her front teeth are decayed!

Beware of paint.

The editor of the Cincinnati Commercial relates the following as having actually occurred on a boat on the Ohio river. The story is too good to be lost:

An incident occurred last night or rather this morning, on our boat worth recording. The berths have been recently painted and to make the covering dry soon, a mixture of glue, be it what it may, so that the paint is "sticky" to a remarkable degree, when a warm substance comes in contact with it Early this morning a cry of "Oh! oh! come here captain," repeated several times in rapid succession, issued from a state room in front of the wheel-house, on the laboard side — The captain being busy, some one of the servants went to the place where the cry of distress came, but the door was not opened and had to be forced! It was found that a fat man had "kicked the clothes off," and rolled against the wall of the state room. The heat of his back had softened the glue in the latter, holding him fast to the wall! No effort of his own could release him. Warm water bathing assisted materially in breaking the bonds that held the unfortunate prisoner, and he was released, but not without an admonition not to be forgotten, to be careful in future to keep the "clothes on," while on board a newly painted steamer.

Seceets of Ventilation.

— Let the air enter the house freely, by a large aperture, like a common window, and capable of regulation in the same way. Let it enter a stove-room, and there completly warmed; then let it pass freely through the whole house, and enter all the apartments, either at the doors or by express channels. Take off the used air by the chimney and an open fire; or for crowds, provide larger and express openings—there is no more to be done. Houses that we have seen ventilated in this simple, unpretending, unmysterious manner, are the best ventilated we have ever entered. It is too often the fate of the mysterious little pipes, funnels, tubes and valves, by which ventilation is frequently symbolised, rather to indicate ventilation than to effect it. — Illustrations of the Theory of Ventilation

Odd Comparaison

— A pious but odd clergyman in New Hampshire, while endeavoring to impress on his hearers a sense of the all-seeing power of God, said: —"God is like a striped squirrel in a stone wall—he can see you, but you can't see him.

☞ The girls are so skittish in Bangor that their mothers are obliged to put blinds upon them, like the blinds upon skittish horses. When they see a young man, it puts them in such a flutter that they can't attend to their spinning.

☞ "Sally, how do you like your new place? is it a religious family!"

"Well, I rather guess it is—they have beans on Sunday."

A young woman, meeting her former fellow servant, was asked how she liked her place.

"Very well."

"Then you have nothing to complain of?"

"Nothing; only master and mistress talk such very bad grammar.

Yankees Girls out West--Prentice complains, in the Louisville Journal, that the Yankee girls who come out west do very little in the way of teaching. Instead of teaching other people's children, they soon get to teach their own.—Pathfinder.

The Salt Rock, 300 miles westwardly from Fort Gibson, Arkansas, is, according to the Sante Fe Republican, a great curiosity. The salt is as white and fine as table salt—can be obtained with as little labor as scraping up sand.
